

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

DIVORCED—Minerva Rawlinson (above), wife of Herbert Rawlinson, handsome moving picture actor, has been divorced by him in Los Angeles. She is known on stage as Roberta Arnold. Rawlinson charges incompatibility. Rawlinson's love letters to Dorothy Clark, girl dancer, whose mother is suing him for $200,000, have been published. Roberta Arnold has made big stage hit. (N. Y. A.)

HERBERT RAWLINSON, who won divorce decree from Minerva Rawlinson.

KATHERINE AURYANSEN, of Newryville, Mass., was declared most perfectly formed student in Mt. Holyoke College, and awarded Sarah Streeter Cup.

FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE—Miss Grace Elizabeth Temple, of Oyster Bay, Long Island, with $3,000 worth of bulldogs, Sir Douglas, Gray Lodge Jade and Fern Lea Rose. (Int'l News Reel)

U. S. SENATOR WALTER E. EDGE, of New Jersey, is shown in Atlantic City with his bride-to-be, Miss Camilla Sewall, of Bath, Me. (Int'l News Reel)

JORUNA ORODIKA, translated from Japanese, means "some flapper," and is nick-name of Moto-Ko Otani, "dancing princess of Japan," who has come to America to bob her hair and learn jazz dancing.

PLEADING with thugs to spare her baby, Mrs. Rose Lerner, of Hoboken, N. J., offered jewels to buy immunity for little Isidore. Robbers took her $2,000, beat her, and fled. She saved family's real "jewel," she said. (N. Y. A.)

MRS. PAUL BENDER, wife of singer in Metropolitan Opera Co., has returned from Europe. (Int'l News Reel)

FRANKIE FRISCH MARRIES—First photograph of Giants' world series' hero after his wedding, and his bride, who was Ada E. Lucy, of New York, shows their happiness. They are on honeymoon. (Int'l News Reel)

THIS STATUE OF LINCOLN, presented to Louisville, Ky., by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bernheim.

GATES HEIRESS TO WED—Dellora Angell, who inherited $20,000,000 from John W. Gates, will wed Lester Norris, 21, cartoonist, as St. Charles, Ill., and girlhood sweetheart.

TWO SELF-STYLED "HARD BOILED LAWYERS" of Kansas City were so impressed with soprano voice of Marion Talley (left), 15-year-old daughter of Missouri railway telegrapher, they took her to New York for test by Maestro Giulio Gatti-Casazza, of Metropolitan Opera Co., who was astounded at tones. Lawyers raised $15,000 to continue her musical education. Her sister, Florence, is shown with her. (N. Y. A.)

MISS CATHERINE OKIE, as she appeared in society's fashion show at Hotel Plaza, New York, for benefit of disabled soldiers.

SULTAN MOHAMMED SIXTH, who has been deposed as ruler of Turkey by Ankara Government of Mustapha Kemal Pasha. (N. Y. A.)

JOHN J. ESCH, Interstate Commerce Commissioner, was recent caller on President Harding. (Int'l News Reel)

MISS MARGUERITE BARNES, pretty debutante, was cigarette girl at charity carnival in Washington, D. C. (Int'l News Reel)

LIEUT. ISIDORE N. COURT, member of French Foreign Legion in world war, and later in U. S. forces, committed suicide by gas in New York. He was awarded Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry. (N. Y. A.)

WITH TANKS, ARMORED MOTOR CARS, field howitzers and other war equipment, Moscow celebrated "peaceful" anniversary of famous revolution which overthrew Czar Nicholas.

Copyright, 1922, International News Service